PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Old Saint Mary's Cathedral & Chinese Mission is a culturally diverse Catholic community which seeks to evangelize in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

A MINISTRY OF THE PAULIST FATHERS

OLD SAINT MARY'S, built in 1854 as California's first Cathedral, was the first Cathedral to be named in honor of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception. The Paulist Fathers were given Pastoral responsibilities of Old St. Mary's in 1894 and have faithfully ministered to the people of Chinatown, Nob Hill and the Financial District ever since. A Survivor of the 1906 earthquake and fire, this major historical landmark has been retrofitted to meet new seismic codes; however, we must now comply with the American Disability Act and refurbish the interior of this beautiful old cathedral. Your prayer and financial support today will help save this beautiful landmark, preserve its rich history, and continue the welcoming presence of Old Saint Mary's Cathedral and Chinese Mission.

Notes from the Paulist

A SAINT OF COMMON SENSE, GOOD HUMOR AND KINDNESS: FRANCIS DE SALES

There's a test I perform when trying to measure the helpfulness for me of any saint found on the Church calendar. It has nothing to do with miracles. I ask myself "would I enjoy sitting down for a cup of coffee with him or her?" It's my way of saying: do I feel "at home"? Or more deeply, is this a kind of holiness I would trust my life with?

For me, ST. FRANCIS de SALES would top the list. Listening to his voice over a cup of coffee would be a lot like reading one of his books. Simple, unpretentious, relevant and to the point.

FRANCIS de SALES was a young priest who was appointed the bishop of Geneva in 1602. He worked there until he died twenty years later. Geneva was a diocese without a Catholic. It was Calvinist territory. All the Catholics had fled to Italy or had gone underground. Francis' mission was to find them and assure them that in his pastoral care God and the Church were present.

How did FRANCIS meet people who were most likely not even there? For one thing, he founded a Catholic magazine to spread the word. This was one of the reasons Fr. Hecker selected St. Francis de Sales as one of the patrons of the Paulist Fathers. I have no doubt that today Francis would be using all of the latest and most effective media.

ST. FRANCIS was pastor of moderation and balance at a time when both the Catholic and Protestant believed that they were contending with enemies, heretics punishable by death. The Reformation was less than a hundred years old, and feelings about it had the intensity of a major family quarrel.

FRANCIS de SALES was different. He tried persuasion where it would have an effect, and patience when persuasion produced no immediate effect. He chose friendship as a more Christ-like tool than enemy-ship.

FRANCIS' gentle pastoral approach ensured that he would remain forever in his Catholic-less diocese. No chance to become a cardinal or pope. He gives us a great model of a man who had his priorities straight.

The next best thing to sitting down for coffee with ST. FRANCIS de SALES is exploring his book "An Introduction to the Devout Life." I confess, I approached this book with suspicion. I told myself that the 17th century is not the 21st, and ST. FRANCIS de SALES is not me. But I discovered that this book is the genuine article.

Is FRANCIS "Introduction to a Devout Life" worth reading? I offer you a sample, so you can judge for yourself.....

1. Never be in a hurry: do everything quietly and in a calm spirit. Do not use your inner peace for anything whatsoever, even if our whole world seems upset.
2. Nothing is so strong as gentleness, nothing so gentle as real strength.
3. Be who you are and be that well.
4. When you encounter difficulties and contradictions, do not try to break them, but bend them with gentleness and time.
5. Do not wish to be anything but what you are, and try to be that perfectly.

Participate in Pope Francis's Synod at Your Parish - Take the Disciple Maker Index Survey!

Pope Francis invites the whole Church to participate in the preparatory process for the upcoming Synod of Bishops on Synodality. This unprecedented opportunity will facilitate discussion and reflection to help shape the Church's understanding of herself and her mission of evangelization and forming disciples. The Archdiocese of San Francisco has kicked-off the local synodal process this month by asking every Catholic to participate in the Disciple Maker Index survey between now and February 15. The process will continue in February and March with engagement sessions offered throughout the Archdiocese. The Disciple Maker Index survey is a nationally recognized survey administered at parishes around the United States and Canada since 2013 by The Catholic Leadership Institute. The results from this survey will provide baseline feedback from which content for engagement sessions will be developed. To take the survey for your parish, go to www.sfarch.org/synod and click on your parish.

Be sure to participate by February 15!
